minister to Russia, died here today at his home as the result of a stroke of paralysis, which he suffered last Friday. The funeral will be held next Thursday, the 8th anniversary of Dr. White's birthday.

Andrew Dickson White was born in Homer, N. Y., on November 7, 1832. Yale college conferred the degree of A. B. upon him in 1853, together with the Yale literary and DeForest gold medals and the First Clark Prize. His post-graduate studies were pursued at Sorbonne, College de France and University of Berlin.

TWO OAKLAND YOUTHS KILLED

Two more Oakland youths have met death in action, according to advices received here by their parents. Sergeant William E. Whitney met his fate on October 5, according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Clara Myers, 6395 Dana street. Private E. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kelly, 777 Thirteenth street, was killed September 29, official word from the war department to the parents states.

Sergeant Whitney was one of the best Oakland men to be drafted and sent to Camp Lewis for training. He went overseas in July, this year, with C Company, 363d Infantry. His mother had not heard from him since September 3. Whitney was born in Oakland and received his education here. He was 25 years old, and at the time he entered the service was with the Magazine Service Company in San Francisco. Kelly was attached to K Company, 864th Infantry. He lived in Oakland since 1913. He was formerly of Colorado. He was trained in Camp Lewis and left New York June, 1918, for the battlefield.

DEATH CALLS FOR MANY PROMINENT

The funeral of Miss Dorothy Kelley, daughter of Mrs. George W. Kelley and prominent Red Cross worker, who died yesterday at the family home, 902 Ross street, Piedmont, will take place tomorrow. It will be strictly private. Miss Kelley contracted influenza a few days ago, with pneumonia following. She was born in Oakland 27 years ago and received her education here. Since the beginning of the local war work she has been the efficient assistant secretary of Oakland chapter, American Red Cross.

Besides her mother, Miss Kelley is survived by three sisters and a brother, Mrs. Walter Davis of New York, Mrs. Russell Countryman, Mrs. J. W. Garthwaite, wife of J. W. Garthwaite, former chairman of the local chapter, American Red Cross, and G. A. Kelley, MRS. C. M. KUTZ.

Mrs. Catherine Makee Kutz, wife of Rear Admiral George F. Kutz, U. S. N., retired, and early Californian settler, died yesterday at the Kutz family residence, 475 Vernon street. Besides her husband she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Arthur P. Crist, wife of Major A. P. Crist, and seven sons: Henry, F. Bennett, George P. Kutz Jr., Lieutenant Francis Gunnard Kutz, U. S. N., Lieutenant Commander James F. Kutz, pay corps, U. S. N., Fred Rogers Kutz, chief yeoman, U. S. N., and Charles Kutz.

Mrs. Kutz, who was 70 years old, was born in New York but had lived in California more than 30 years. A part of her earlier life was spent in the Hawaiian Islands. She is closely related to E. D. Tenny, the well-known sugar planter.

The funeral will take place tomorrow at 2:30 p. m., from the California Crematorium, and will be strictly private. MRS. GLADYS E. HERRICK.

Mrs. Gladys Evelyn Herrick, wife of Dr. Frank L. Herrick, died yesterday of pneumonia at the family home, 2206 Hopkins street. She was 27 years old. She leaves, besides her husband, two young sons, Frank L. Herrick Jr. and Ralph E. Herrick.

GEORGE C. HIEFIELD.

The body of George C. Hiefield, who has been employed as a shipbuilder at Mare Island, will be sent to Oakland for burial. Hiefield was a victim of Spanish influenza and pneumonia. He is a brother of Al Hiefield, a superintendent in the Hiefield shipyards.

The funeral of Theodore Rantau, a well-known Oakland commission man, who died Saturday night after a brief illness, took place yesterday in San Leandro. He was the founder of the S. Herman commission market with which he was associated at the time of his death. Rantau was the son of a pioneer San Leandro family. He leaves a widow, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Rantau; a brother, C. H. Rantau; and a sister, Mrs. B. F. Mason, wife of B. F. Mason, health officer in San Leandro.

ROBERT ROE.

Robert Roe, brother of Mrs. R. R. James, Miss Amy G. Roe, and Mr. M. Roe, William H. Roe of this city, Mrs. J. B. Bauer of San Francisco, Sidney P. Roe of San Diego and Tom H. Roe of Portland, died yesterday morning in Sonoma, following an attack of Spanish influenza. Roe was born in Oakland, where he lived until four years ago, when he became a member of the commissionary department in the State Home at Sonoma. He was 24 years old. The interment will be in Sonoma.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4. — A still further decrease in the influenza epidemic marked the daily report of the Board of Health here today, when but 29 new cases were reported by telephone. There were 407 cases reported by mail between October 25 and November 3. Nineteen deaths were reported this morning.

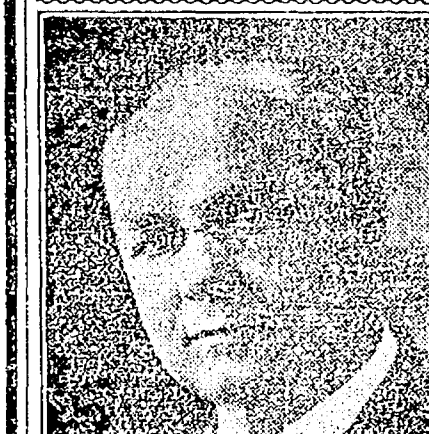

When Itching Stops

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and skin irritation almost instantly and that cleanses and soothes the skin.

Ask any druggist for a 35c or $1 bottle of zemo and apply it as directed. Soon you will find that irritations, pimples, blackheads, eczema, blotches, ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear.

A little zemo, the penetrating, satisfying liquid, is all that is needed, for it banishes most skin eruptions, makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy.

She Darkened Her Gray Hair

Well Known Lady Tells How She Darkened Her Gray Hair by a Simple Home Made Remedy

Mrs. E. H. Boots, a well known resident of Buchanan County, Ia., who darkened her gray hair by a simple home-made remedy made the following statement:

"Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray or faded hair, and make it soft and glossy with this simple remedy, which they can mix at home. To half a pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, one small box of Barbo Compound and 1/2 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair every other day until the gray hair is darkened sufficiently. This is not a dye, it does not color the most delicate scalp; is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off. It will make a gray haired person look 10 to 20 years younger."—Advertisement.

RICHEST WOMAN CALLED BY DEATH

Here is some of the philosophy of Mrs. Russell Sage, the "world's richest woman":

My experience has taught me that successful people are those who take what comes to hand, and, if it be small, wait and work for something better. The root of failure lies often in the thought that you can do but one thing and must do that or nothing.

If my cook should leave me today I could do the work myself without running all over the city for another girl before we had something to eat. Housework is one of the best occupations I know. Girls should take up housework, even as servants, rather than work in the stores. If I had a daughter (she was childless) she would have been taught to cook and sew and be of some comfort to her parents. Some girls nowadays are of no more comfort to their parents than if they did not exist.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Russell Sage, widow of Russell Sage, the financier, died suddenly this morning at her residence here. She had been in feeble health for several years. She was ninety years old.

Mrs. Sage's death resulted from ailments incident to advanced age. A nurse who visited the aged woman's room about midnight found her sinking and she died about an hour later.

Margaret Olivia Sage, until she reached middle life, had only the meagre income of a school teacher and then in a day she found herself mistress of one of the greatest fortunes in America. Her early days were devoted to scraping together enough money to give herself a fair education, and her last were spent in developing the science of giving money away. During the last seven years of complete stewardship of the $70,000,000 left by her husband, Russell Sage, she returned nearly $30,000,000 to the public by systematic philanthropies.

Mrs. Sage was a "woman's woman" and her charities were largely directed to the aid of women and children. She became widely known as a "lady bountiful" and was so besieged with requests for money that she had to retire finally to seclusion. Begging letters have been received at her Fifth avenue home at the rate of 500 a day, some of the writers threatening suicide and others to do her bodily harm if their petitions were not heeded. So insistent were the hordes that they sometimes gathered in numbers about her doors.

She was born September 8, 1823, eighth in descent, through her father, from Miles Standish, and on her maternal side a descendant of Col. Henry Pierson of Sag Harbor, N. Y., founder of the public school system in America in 1787.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN STATE TOMORROW IS FORECAST, WITH LEGISLATURE ASSURED

3 UNOPPOSED WOMEN TO GO TO ASSEMBLY

Many Women Seeking Offices Feminine Campaigners Are Busy

While both Governor William D. Stephens, Republican, and Theodore A. Bell, Independent, were reported confident of election tomorrow as governor of California, the unusual situation created by a primary election tangle made political guessing difficult.

Stephens defeated Mayor James Rolph of San Francisco in the Republican nomination at the primaries, and Rolph, seeking two nominations, obtained more votes than Francis J. Heney of Santa Monica for the Democratic nomination. The Supreme Court held the state law barred both Heney and Rolph from the ballot and "write-in" movements in behalf of both are active.

DRY QUESTION FACTOR. Henry H. Roser of San Francisco is the Socialist candidate for governor. The Democratic state central committee endorsed Bell.

Stephens declared for "bone dry" prohibition and Bell's platform advocated protection for the wine grape industry.

The constitutional amendments and other measures to be voted upon include a "bone dry" measure, a liquor regulatory act, land values taxation and a state health insurance system.

California will have at least three women legislators, the first in the state, although women suffrage has been in effect since October, 1911, through the election tomorrow. These three are unopposed candidates. Another is opposed by a Socialist candidate only. Mrs. Stella B. Irvine of Riverside is the candidate of the Prohibition party for Congress in the Eleventh district against Congressman William Keener, Democrat.

OFFICES TO BE FILLED. One hundred and one state legislative offices, two places on the State Supreme Court bench and eleven congressional offices are to be filled. Re-election of incumbent representatives to Congress in eight California districts is regarded as probable, the outcome in three other districts being in doubt. In the Seventh district Congressman Denver S. Church of Fresno is not a candidate for re-election and a contest has developed between H. E. Barbour, Republican, and Henry Hawson, Democrat, both of Fresno.

Congressman E. A. Hayes of Edenville, Republican, is opposed in his candidacy for re-election in the Eighth district by Hugh S. Hersman of Gilroy, Democrat. In the Ninth district Congressman Charles H. Randall, Los Angeles, Democrat and Prohibitionist, is opposed by Montaville Flowers, Monrovia, Republican. In the districts where re-election of incumbents is regarded as probable five of the Congressmen are Republicans and three are Democrats.

Following are the women who are unopposed for election to the assembly: Seventh district, Elizabeth Hughes, Oroville; Forty-sixth district, Estel B. Broughton, Modesto; Fifty-sixth district, Mrs. Grace S. Dorris, Bakersfield. In the Forty-first district Mrs. Anna L. Saylor of Berkeley is opposed by Herbert L. Coggins, Berkeley, Socialist.

Women candidates of the Socialist party are: Lieutenant governor, Elvina S. Beale, Berkeley; Ninth congressional district, Grace Silver Henry, Los Angeles; Twenty-first assembly district, Martha Steiner, San Francisco; Twenty-ninth assembly district, Kora Callaway, San Francisco; Seventy-first assembly, Linnie M. Story, Los Angeles; Seventy-fifth Assembly district, Lillian E. Heffernan, Wyomington; Democrat. Katherine A. Morton, Wyoming; Republican. Inez Augusta Lusk, Oregon; Socialist. Ethel E. Rehfeld, Idaho; Republican.

UNIVERSITY REGENT. Treva G. Hess, Colorado; Socialist. Blinda Swanson, Colorado; Socialist.

Mrs. Leo Morgan Pelmonter, Colorado; American. Eunice Hood, Nevada; Non-Partisan.

LEGISLATURE. California—Eight. Utah—Probably six. Washington—Two. Wyoming—Two. Colorado—Two. Oregon—Six.

CASTRO ISSUES PUBLIC STATEMENT

The following statement was issued today by W. E. Castro, organizer for the American Federation of Labor:

"Oakland, Cal., Nov. 2, 1918. We of organized labor, who have closely watched the actions of men holding public office, have decided upon names herein contained as being worthy of your support. These names are to be chosen to guide the destinies of your various governments for the ensuing term. Each and every one of these men have been found 100 per cent American, which means an expression of democracy. They are not in any way, shape or form allied with or servants of corporations or combinations of money interests, but are from American citizens and will handle the interests of the individual citizen with the same consideration as a combination of money interests.

With one exception, all of these men have served the public in the office they now seek. The record stands 100 per cent clean, so why not place this efficient set of men back into office?

"The one person who does not hold office at the present time happens to be a man whom I have known for many years. His sympathies and his activities have always been in behalf of the working class. He has in many cases come to the rescue of men who were being blackballed by corporations on account of their activities in behalf of union labor and compelled these kaiser-combinations to respect these men as Americans should be respected. In my opinion, when this man is elected governor the working class of people will be treated as Americans in every respect.

"I do not believe in changing horses in the middle of the stream, but if you are placed in a position where the horse that you are riding is going to endanger you, then I believe in making the change, and this is, in my opinion, the case at this time.

"I take the greatest pleasure in announcing the name of Theodore Bell for governor. "James Quinn for superior judge. "Harry W. Pulifer for justice of the peace.

"Joseph M. Kelley for assessor of Alameda county. "W. E. CASTRO, "Organizer American Federation of Labor."

Herbert D. Wise, candidate for justice of the peace in Brooklyn township, is confident of election tomorrow. At the primary in August he received 200 more votes than any other candidate. Since the primary two of the candidates who failed to qualify—Earl C. Leet and E. F. Coffman, have strongly endorsed Wise, and urge his election.

PROHIBITION CLAIMS. Prohibition leaders here claimed they were virtually certain of 22 votes in the senate and 49 in the assembly in favor of the national prohibition amendment.

There are twenty-five constitutional amendments to be voted on. These include the liquor regulation initiative act, abolishing saloons, a bone dry prohibition measure, land values taxation measure and measures regulating interest on loans; establishing a health insurance system; creating two additional appellate courts in Los Angeles and San Francisco and various other initiatives.

CASTRO ISSUES PUBLIC STATEMENT

The following statement was issued today by W. E. Castro, organizer for the American Federation of Labor:

"Oakland, Cal., Nov. 2, 1918. We of organized labor, who have closely watched the actions of men holding public office, have decided upon names herein contained as being worthy of your support. These names are to be chosen to guide the destinies of your various governments for the ensuing term. Each and every one of these men have been found 100 per cent American, which means an expression of democracy. They are not in any way, shape or form allied with or servants of corporations or combinations of money interests, but are from American citizens and will handle the interests of the individual citizen with the same consideration as a combination of money interests.

With one exception, all of these men have served the public in the office they now seek. The record stands 100 per cent clean, so why not place this efficient set of men back into office?

"The one person who does not hold office at the present time happens to be a man whom I have known for many years. His sympathies and his activities have always been in behalf of the working class. He has in many cases come to the rescue of men who were being blackballed by corporations on account of their activities in behalf of union labor and compelled these kaiser-combinations to respect these men as Americans should be respected. In my opinion, when this man is elected governor the working class of people will be treated as Americans in every respect.

"I do not believe in changing horses in the middle of the stream, but if you are placed in a position where the horse that you are riding is going to endanger you, then I believe in making the change, and this is, in my opinion, the case at this time.

"I take the greatest pleasure in announcing the name of Theodore Bell for governor. "James Quinn for superior judge. "Harry W. Pulifer for justice of the peace.

"Joseph M. Kelley for assessor of Alameda county. "W. E. CASTRO, "Organizer American Federation of Labor."

Herbert D. Wise, candidate for justice of the peace in Brooklyn township, is confident of election tomorrow. At the primary in August he received 200 more votes than any other candidate. Since the primary two of the candidates who failed to qualify—Earl C. Leet and E. F. Coffman, have strongly endorsed Wise, and urge his election.

LARGE VOTE LIKELY; FLU NOT FEARED

Assurances from the state board of health and local doctors that there is no danger of contracting the influenza by going to the polls tomorrow will, it is believed, tend to bring out a good-sized vote. All doctors advise that the people get out into the open air as much as possible. In view of the fact that important issues are at stake a big vote is expected.

Chairman Roscoe Jones of the local Stephens organization urges all friends of the governor to vote. Alameda county is relied upon to give the governor a splendid vote. Harmony exists among the various Republican elements, who are united for Governor Stephens.

"I find that the people understand Governor Stephens much more fully than before the primaries. Many points of opposition to him have vanished in the light of the facts as they have been unfolded during the last two months.

"As a last word to the voters, I simply but emphatically say: 'Vote your mark, go to the polls, vote as Americans should, and the Republican majority will be all that we expect.'

M. J. Layman, and Fred A. Campbell, in charge of the local Bell headquarters, express the hope that they could carry the county for Bell.

POLITICAL NOTES

In addition to the numerous endorsements he has received from the civic and business organizations, lawyers and leading citizens of Alameda county, the following have announced their endorsement of the candidacy of Judge A. F. St. Sure for superior court judge:

Mayor John L. Davis of Oakland, Mayor Samuel G. Traylor of Berkeley, Mayor W. H. Christie of Emeryville and Mayor Oliver Ellsworth of Piedmont. Associate Justice of the Supreme Court Henry A. Melvin, in endorsing Judge St. Sure, says: "My long years of intimate personal friendship and professional association with Judge St. Sure have convinced me that he is possessed of a splendid equipment as a lawyer and of a judicial temperament, which eminently fit him for the office of judge of the Superior Court."

The campaign committee for Judge Harry W. Pulifer, candidate for re-election as justice of the peace of Oakland township, has issued the following statement:

"In the contest for justice of the peace of Oakland township, more than 85 per cent of the legal profession have endorsed Harry W. Pulifer, who now occupies this position, and they have done so not through friendship, because Judge Pulifer's opponent has as many friends among the legal profession as known that Judge Pulifer has greater knowledge, learning and experience in his Judge Pulifer, but because of Judge Pulifer's knowledge, learning and experience in the legal profession and hence is the better qualified for the position. Our desire should always be to return the best qualified man to office. No republic will ever disintegrate if this is conscientiously done. Hence our best interests demand the retention of Judge Pulifer."

Vote for University Act, Plea of Merritt

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Speaking as the Controller of the University of California, Ralph P. Merritt has issued an appeal to voters to ratify University Constitutional Amendment No. 8 on the ballot at the polls tomorrow. Merritt says:

"The amendment involves no expenditures, and no change in the security of the trust funds of the University and no change in the close relationship between the university and the people. It gives the power to the regents and the faculty to modify the courses and degrees given by the University whenever the regents and faculty shall find it necessary in order that the students may be given the most modern training.

"It is not generally known that many of the details specifying courses and methods of instruction were put into the constitution of the state fifty years ago. The courses of instruction today and in coming years should be dictated by rigid constitutional provisions of a half-century ago."

Assurances from the state board of health and local doctors that there is no danger of contracting the influenza by going to the polls tomorrow will, it is believed, tend to bring out a good-sized vote. Police Hunting for Missing Persons

The following persons have been reported as missing and the police have been asked to aid in finding them: Homer Wilson, 18 years old, 1779 Goss street; Earl Roberts, 6 years old, 1438 Chestnut street; Henry Woods, 13 years old, 421 Foothill Boulevard; S. H. Hume, 48 years old, 638 Thirty-sixth street.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowels and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

THIN PEOPLE NEED BITRO- PHOSPHATE

What It Is and How It Increases
Weight, Strength and Nerve Force in Two Weeks'
Time in Many Instances.

"Take plain bitro-phosphate" is the advice of physicians to thin, delicate people who lack vim, energy and nerve force, and there seems to be ample proof of the efficacy of this preparation to warrant the recommendation. Moreover, if we judge from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and reducing unsightly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who heavily feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by The Owl Drug Co. and all good druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance, the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Clinical tests made in St. Catherine's Hospital, N. Y. C., showed that two

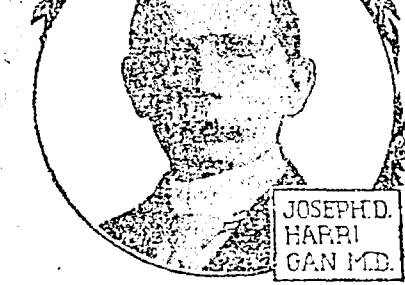

Miss Josephine Davis, reporting her experience with BITRO PHOSPHATE, says: "It is remarkable what it did for me. After a few days I began to regain my strength, felt full of life, and due to sleep soundly, and all my little troubles seemed to disappear. I gained twelve pounds in four weeks."

patients gained in weight 23 and 27 pounds, respectively, through the administration of this organic phosphate; both patients claim they have not felt as strong and well for the past twelve years.

This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

Physicians and hospitals everywhere are now recognizing its merits by its use in every case of wasting quantities.

Frederick Kelle, M. D., editor of New

Former Visiting Specialist to North Eastern Dispensary.

York Herald's "Who's Who" says: "Bitro-phosphate should be prescribed by every doctor and used by every hospital to increase strength and nerve force and to enrich the blood."

Dr. J. H. Harris, former Visiting Specialist to North Eastern Dispensary, says: "Let those who are weak, thin, nervous, asthenic, or run-down take a course of bitro-phosphate and you will soon see some wonderful results in the increase of nerve energy, strength of body and mind and power of endurance."

Bitro-phosphate is made entirely of the organic phosphate compound referred to in the National Standard Dispensary as being an excellent tonic and nutritive and a preparation which has found its widest application in the treatment of neurasthenia. The standard of excellence, strength and purity of its substance is beyond question, for every bitro-phosphate tablet is manufactured in strict accordance with the official formula and requirements. Bitro-phosphate is therefore not a patent medicine and should not be confused with any of the nostrums, quack tonics or widely advertised "miraculous" remedies.

CAUTION—Although Bitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, owing to its remarkable flesh-growing properties, it should not be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.

SERATHOL FOR INDIGESTION

Dr. Edward Perrier, a French physician, claims that people who have a pain in the stomach, caused by indigestion, gastritis or acidity, in acute stage with secret mixture and tears, are responsible of indigestion. In a series of experiments he has long been known as an excellent authority of acidity in the stomach. Moreover, it is inexpensive and perfectly harmless, and can be used with it on the basis of satisfaction of most health.

Get rid of that "burning" and the dark, sour breath and all of the other symptoms of your brain and all of the other symptoms of indigestion that are caused by ACIDITY. SERATHOL—THE PERMANENT TONIC, the core of the digestive system—Advertisement.

VOTERS OF ALAMEDA COUNTY

In My Campaign for Re-Election As County Surveyor
I Have

FIRST: STOOD ON MY RECORD OF 28 YEARS OF SERVICE IN THE COUNTY SURVEYOR'S OFFICE, 16 YEARS AS DEPUTY AND 12 YEARS AS CHIEF.

SECOND: I HAVE STOOD ON MY TRAINING, ACHIEVEMENT AND EXPERIENCE; BELIEVING THAT MY LONG EXPERIENCE IN THE OFFICE AND FAMILIARITY WITH THE DEMANDS OF THE OFFICE MAKE ME MORE CAPABLE OF RENDERING EFFICIENT SERVICE THAN MY OPPONENT.

THIRD: I HAVE ENDEAVORED TO ACQUAINT STRANGERS WITH MY STANDING BY PUBLISHING A LIST OF NEARLY FOUR HUNDRED OF THE MOST PROMINENT BUSINESS MEN IN ALAMEDA COUNTY, AND NEARLY ONE HUNDRED OF THE LEADING ENGINEERS OF ALAMEDA CO. THESE MEN HAVE UNQUALIFIEDLY ENDORSED ME—WHY? BECAUSE THEY KNOW ME, KNOW MY WORK AND HAVE THE BEST INTERESTS OF THIS RAPIDLY GROWING COMMUNITY AT HEART.

FOURTH: MUCH AGAINST MY WILL I HAVE BEEN FORCED TO USE SOME PRETTY HARSH ARRANGEMENT OF MY OPPONENT, BECAUSE HE, INSTEAD OF TELLING THE VOTERS OF ALAMEDA CO. SOMETHING OF HIS ENGINEERING ACHIEVEMENT AND FITNESS FOR THE OFFICE, HAS BUSIED HIMSELF IN PERSONALLY ATTACKING MY HONOR AND INTEGRITY. THIS NO MAN CAN SUCCESSFULLY DO, AND I HAVE, FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE VOTERS WHO NOT KNOWING ME MIGHT BE MISLED, SHOWN MY OPPONENT UP IN HIS TRUE LIGHT—I HAVE EXPOSED HIS CAMPAIGN OF LIES, MISREPRESENTATION AND INNUENDO—AND HE HAS NOT DARED TO COME OUT IN THE OPEN, IN ANSWER.

FIFTH: I LEAVE MY CAMPAIGN IN THE HANDS OF THE VOTERS OF ALAMEDA COUNTY, BELIEVING THEY WILL DO ME FULL JUSTICE AT THE POLLS TOMORROW. I WISH TO THANK ALL OF MY FRIENDS WHO HAVE SO GENEROUSLY COME OUT IN MY SUPPORT. PUT ON YOUR MASKS, GO TO THE POLLS AND VOTE FOR ME FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR.

FAITHFULLY YOURS,

PERRY A. HAVILAND

County Surveyor

Week-End Affairs Are Interesting

Mrs. Walter Kline was hostess at a week-end party at her home in Crocker Highlands, entertaining in honor of Miss Hazel Kline, who is visiting in Oakland from her home in Seattle. Miss Claire Bishop was among the younger girls invited to meet Miss Kline upon this informal occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Noah Dewey are again in their home in Alameda, after an extended trip through the eastern states. There they were the guests of relatives and friends sharing the pleasures of a number of informal affairs planned in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. Dewey were accompanied home by Mrs. Dewey's sister, Mrs. J. H. McAllister of New York, who will be their house guest for several weeks.

Quite a winter colony has assembled at the Hotel Claremont this month among the guests being many of the service set. Captain J. Waddington of the British army and Mrs. Waddington are here from Calgary, in British Columbia. Captain Waddington served for two years on the western front and is now on leave to recuperate from wounds received on the firing line.

Captain W. S. Overton, U. S. A., and Mrs. Overton of New York are registered at the Claremont. The beautiful home of Mrs. Mason T. Cole of St. Helena has been closed for the season, the charming matron having come to the bay section for the fall.

Captain Arthur T. Crist, U. S. N., and Mrs. Crist of Adams Point have as their guest Mrs. Crist's brother, Jas. Fulton Kutz, paymaster in the navy. Paymaster Kutz is at present stationed at Yerba Buena. Rear Admiral and Mrs. George L. Kutz have taken a house in Vernon street, where they will reside.

While Raymond Wilson is in Pittsburgh, Mrs. Wilson will remain east with her husband, who is engaged in work for the government. Mrs. Wilson will be missed by many friends here since she was one of the matrons so active in all charity affairs and war work in the Eastbay cities.

Ensign Charles Dodge, U. S. N., has completed his course of instruction at Annapolis and has been assigned to duty on the New Mexico. Mrs. Dodge (Hazel Tietzen) who has been east for many months has just returned to make her home with the Paul O. Tietzen in Claremont. Mrs. W. H. Haynes, another sister is also at the Tietzen home while her husband is in Washington.

A marriage which took place the week end in Hayward at the home of the bridegroom's parents, was that of Lieutenant W. Steves of the U. S. S. Marine Corps of Pensacola, Fla. and Miss Caroline Bolles, Rev. L. B. Hilles of Berkeley officiated at the marriage of the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Bolles of Lincoln, Neb., and a member of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Both Lieutenant Steves and his bride are graduates of the University of California. The officer will take his bride east to reside at Pensacola, where he is now instructor in aviation.

Mrs. A. M. Parry of Oakland is registered at the Hotel Marcellus, New York. A number of residents of San Francisco are also stopping in the Riverside park section of New York this week.

Gordon S. Cleverdon, son of Mrs. S. W. Cleverdon and a graduate of the Berkeley high school, has completed his course at Fortress Monroe, Va., and now has the rank of sergeant-major. He is en route to England, where he is to enter in a school of anti-aircraft.

Stabbed Because of Woman; Is Silent

The police are still in the dark as to who stabbed Walter W. Campbell.

5565 Sixth street, Oakland, who was found unconscious at Seventh and Jefferson street Saturday night with a serious knife wound in his abdomen. He is at the Receiving Hospital, but the police have not been able to get a coherent story from him as to whom his assailant was.

To regain health and strength after Spanish Influenza or Pneumonia

BUILD up your blood and body with Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

The germs of Spanish Influenza or Pneumonia are very devastating in their effect. Your blood is impoverished, your vitality drained to low ebb, your powers of resistance so enfeebled that any serious chronic disease may fasten on you.

To completely regain your health and strength, you must restore your blood to normal richness and redness. Gude's Pepto-Mangan is a wonderful general tonic and blood builder. It increases the number of the red blood cells and their capacity to carry oxygen to every cell and tissue, charging your system with new strength, energy and resistance to disease. It increases the appetite, is promptly assimilated, and exceedingly pleasant to taste. Endorsed and prescribed by the medical profession for over 25 years.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan also is of great value in the prevention of Spanish Influenza or Pneumonia. It makes rich, red, pure blood—your best fortification against the inroads of sickness.

FRIENDLY WARNING No. 1:—Don't try to doctor yourself for such acute and dangerous diseases as Spanish Influenza or Pneumonia. Even at the first sign of a cold in the head, call in a physician. This precaution may save your life.

FRIENDLY WARNING No. 2:—There is only one Pepto-Mangan and that is Gude's. Sold in bottle and package as here shown. For sale at all drug stores.

Study this picture so you will know how Gude's Pepto-Mangan looks.

Organized Labor take Notice!

Fraud Against Workingman

Among many other untrue statements made by Painless Parker in his attempt to foist Initiative No 21 upon the people of California at the coming election are those regarding the attitude of labor.

Painless Parker and his amendment have been denounced by practically every reputable labor leader in California and by every labor organization which has considered the amendment. In spite of this fact, however, when the amendment was being debated on its merits before the Executive Committee of the Federation of Waterfront Workers, Painless Parker made the statement that Amendment No. 21 had been endorsed by the Building Trades Council of Alameda County.

E. H. Hart, President of the Building Trades Council of Alameda County and Vice-President of the State Federation of Labor, is authority for the statement that Parker's assertion is absolutely untrue, that his amendment never received the endorsement of the Building Trades Council or of any other Alameda county labor organization of which Mr. Hart has any knowledge. On the contrary, Mr. Hart and other reputable labor leaders of Alameda county have denounced Amendment No. 21 as a vicious measure and a fraud upon the workingmen of California.

CUTICURA HEALS ITCHING BURNING

On Body. Kept Getting Worse. Caused Loss of Sleep.

"My whole body was affected with an itching and burning which kept getting worse all the time. It would break out in bunches that resembled blisters. They caused great loss of sleep and itched constantly and when they were scratched they scaled. The skin was sore and later on scales formed."

"I had the trouble nearly a year when I tried Cuticura. When I had used six cakes of Soap and eight boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Louise Bellach, Three Forks, Mont.

Most skin troubles might be prevented by using Cuticura Soap and Ointment for every-day toilet purposes.

LAST RITES SAID FOR AUTO EDITOR

The funeral of Edmund Crinnion, automobile editor of The Oakland Tribune, who died on Saturday of pneumonia following an attack of influenza, took place this morning at 9 o'clock from Sacred Heart church. The interment was in St. Mary's cemetery. A regular mass for the repose of his soul was celebrated, with Father Meandy, assisted by Rev. Edward Dempsey, officiating. Father Sampson officiated at the brief ceremony at the cemetery.

The pallbearers were Herbert Brenna, Philip Cole, Hugh Leonard, Ed Rogers, Charles Nagle and William J. Hayes. Crinnion was one of the best known automobile writers on the coast. He was stricken a week ago Wednesday, pneumonia rapidly developing. Besides a widow, Mrs. Agnes H. Crinnion, he is survived by three sons. He was born in Oakland 36 years ago and for many years has been prominent in the activities of the Knights of Columbus.

REFUSES TO GO TO CALL OF HIS DAUGHTER

"Please send for my father," was the simple plea of 17-year-old Minnie Cardozo, as she lay dying at the Municipal Emergency Hospital last night. Jack Finerman, deputy sheriff, and a Red Cross nurse at once took a machine and drove out to the Cardozo home, 315 Ninety-fifth avenue, where Frank Cardozo, the father, was just about to retire. When told that his pretty little daughter was dying and wanted to see him, he is said by Finerman to have shrugged his shoulders and replied, "I am too tired to go down there tonight."

The messengers were forced to return to the hospital without the father of the girl, who after one of the bravest fights, according to the attendants, that has been made, finally died at 4 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Dockham Held On Shooting Charge

Mrs. Josephine Dockham, wife of H. R. Dockham, 379 Eleventh street, was charged with manslaughter, following the death of Mrs. Jessie Quiner, at the Mission Emergency Hospital yesterday. Mrs. Quiner was shot in Mrs. Dockham's apartment last Friday night, following a scuffle during which a revolver of small calibre exploded and the bullet passed through Mrs. Quiner's abdomen. According to Mrs. Dockham's first story Mrs. Dockham was accused of shooting her intentionally, but later at the hospital the dying woman told detectives that the shooting was accidental. Mrs. Dockham is being held pending the coroner's inquest.

KEEP UP FIGHTING WORK.

Progress of the Ally armies in Italy, in the Balkans and everywhere in Asiatic Turkey are highly gratifying. Turkey has sued for an armistice, which has been granted, and is now out of the war—to all appearances. General Diaz, the Italian commander-in-chief, has administered an overwhelming defeat to the Austrians all along the Italian front. The enemy is fleeing from Italy as fast as his legs will let him, abandoning vast stores of equipment and material and leaving over 100,000 prisoners—so far counted—behind him. Austria has been granted an armistice and apparently is out of the war.

The internal situation in Austria-Hungary, according to reports, is chaotic, with the complete breakup of the Hapsburg monarchical empire seemingly inevitable. Reports from Germany indicate the possibility of a situation so desperate that the government of that country will be compelled to accept Allied conditions meaning unconditional surrender.

All the news from political and diplomatic circles and of military operations everywhere except on the German front promises a termination of the war within a comparatively brief period. Many events justify a feeling of elation and a confidence that the war is about to be closed on the basis of a complete victory over the Teutonic alliance.

There is one situation, however, that should serve to keep all Ally peoples seriously attending to matters relating to a program of indefinite continuation of hostilities. That is the fighting on Franco-Belgian front.

Here the opposition of the enemy is not broken. Early in October the English armies under Field Marshal Haig definitely pierced the Hindenburg defense line near Cambrai and this entire system of so-called permanent defenses began rapidly to crumble. It collapsed from the Belgian coast to the Moselle river, east of Verdun, where the Americans had wiped out the St. Mihiel salient. The Germans were driven from the North sea coast, where they abandoned the submarine bases of Ostend and Zeebrugge. It was reported that the Hun was in disordered retreat from all Belgium and France. Desperate peace maneuvers from Berlin gave color to the belief that the German military machine was broken.

But since then we have seen German resistance stiffen. The enemy has established new lines of defense and during the last two weeks has been holding tenaciously to the line of the Scheldt-Valenciennes-Aisne-Meuse. He stands in front of Ghent, Hirson, Mezieres, Sedan and Montmedy. He is in a strong natural position of defense, the hills, swamps and easily flooded lowlands to the east of the Scheldt, the Mormal forest, the River Meuse and the heavily fortified passes near Metz and Thionville.

The powers that pretend to constitute the representative government of Germany are striving with all their might to save the kaiser and kaiserism. Prince Maximilian, the chancellor and leading statesman, it must be remembered, is a member of the gang of assassins and thieves that has ruled in Germany for over forty years. There is still merely talk about asking the kaiser to abdicate and the hope discreetly expressed that he will abdicate. There is obviously not sufficient reformed manhood in all the German empire to kick this brutal murderer from power.

It is therefore well that we consider the possibility of a refusal of Ally armistice conditions. If there exists in any responsible circles in Germany any delusion that Germany is not beaten and will not be obliged to settle for the past four years it will be preferable to continue the fight. The final outcome will never be in doubt and any peace but a permanent peace based on unconditional surrender of Germany is unthinkable.

Let us guard against the mistake of concluding that the job is over before it really is. The army administration at Washington is going ahead on the theory that the German armies in the field must be beaten and vanquished. That will bring peace after every other effort fails.

THE THIRD MILESTONE PASSED.

Three years have gone by since THE TRIBUNE came under its present management, and they have been such eventful years that it may not be out of place to indulge in a brief retrospect. While the great world tumult and the national excitements are of course in mind when such an allusion is made, it is mainly what has occurred in this community and section, and particularly the progress and status of THE TRIBUNE, that will here receive consideration.

In the editorial announcement three years ago today it was foreshadowed that this city was on the eve of great expansion. This has come true in the fullest measure. Perhaps no equal period of the city's history has seen such development. THE TRIBUNE has wrought earnestly in behalf of this progress, and has participated in it. It has vastly expanded its facilities, and within the year now closing it has taken possession of a permanent home that has attracted national attention as a model equipment. It has guaranteed its faith in Oakland and the section which it serves by laying deep foundations for the future.

In that editorial of three years ago it was stated that the aim would be to publish a helpful paper. It was well understood that the highest office of a newspaper is to promote unanimity of effort, to discourage divergencies and differences among citizens rather than to accentuate them. It was realized that progress is stifled by personal and political bickering. And THE TRIBUNE set for itself the purpose to encourage and help; to further worthy endeavor at all times and wherever made. As it was conceded at the outset that its patrons and constituencies would judge it from its course of action, so now it may be left to the same tribunal to say whether it has kept faith.

The community has passed through some strenuous times since THE TRIBUNE came under its present control; but there are now signs that these are about over; that the energies of the people soon can be devoted exclusively to the enterprises of peace; that the full measure of prosperity which this Eastbay district is due to experience will soon be enjoyed. But the times will still demand civic attention and straightforwardness, something of that patriotism, intensively directed, that has been so grandly manifest in national affairs. To counsel, assist and urge to this end THE TRIBUNE is fully pledged. To help these communities on to their highest destiny it is more fully committed than ever.

As the world is being made safe for democracy, and the nation hospitable for worthy citizenship, so it shall be the purpose of THE TRIBUNE to assist in making this community desirable for those who would embark in honest enterprise and make worthy endeavor.

A QUESTION OF POLICY.

The announcement that the federal employment offices are to be continued in operation after peace is established seems to be framed with undue assurance and emphasis. It expresses a dear hope, but not a certainty.

Continuation of the employment offices—there are about 700 distributed throughout the country—will depend upon the action of Congress. During the past year the employment bureau has had money to spend prodigally, being favored with an allowance of several million dollars from the President's emergency appropriation of $100,000,000.

But there may be a change of policy when the time arrives for Congress to make a specific appropriation for the maintenance of the employment service. It is estimated that money is now being spent on this service at the rate of about $5,000,000 a year. Congress naturally will want to be shown the necessity for this in times of peace and there may be some Congressmen so obstinate as to insist on being shown.

All citizens are under the obligations of a high duty to vote at tomorrow's election. Many important propositions of government policy are to be determined and many important public offices are to be filled. These matters will not be settled right unless every element of citizenship is strongly represented in the voting. The proposed constitutional amendments, twenty-five of them, should receive intelligent consideration and the well deliberated vote of every elector. Aside from the leading political contest to be decided, that of the governorship, there are many important nonpartisan offices to fill. Vote on all the contests and thereby actively participate in the constitution of the government. The influenza epidemic should keep no one away from the polls, except where attendance upon the sick is required. The wearing of the face mask will eliminate danger of infection in the voting booth. Vote early and count the day one of duty performed.

The best interest of California and the nation demand that at tomorrow's election Hon. William D. Stephens be re-elected governor of California. His administration of the State's affairs since his appointment to succeed Governor Johnson a year ago has been eminently satisfactory. He has demonstrated his fitness for the office. He has been a leader in California's war efforts. He has proved worthy by trial of the confidence of the people. He has shown that the government of the State is safe in his hands. This is not the time to experiment with the untried.

NOTES and COMMENT

That story about monkeys being trained by Huns to throw grenades is improbable. Not that the Huns wouldn't do it, but that the monkeys wouldn't fall in as allies. Not all are as easy as the Turks and Austrians.

A mysterious despatch from New York is to the effect that "hens are to be given sand no longer." With eggs around ninety cents, any news about hens is important, but this might be amplified into complete information.

Despatch to the effect that Madame Brezhnevskaya has been shot by the Bolsheviks. She was the grandmother of the revolution. Suggesting that she started something that she couldn't stop. That is nearly always the way with mob enterprises.

The interesting news is vouchsafed that "spooners" are not exempt from the mask ordinance. Eleven transgressors of this class, who "occurred" around Lake Merritt, have found this out in the most practical way. But it can be imagined how popular the policeman who intruded in the necessary enforcement of the ordinance made himself.

Some profess to fear that the influenza mask will speed up the footpad business. But it should be remembered that the holdup industry was flourishing unduly before the epidemic arrived. Considerable business was being done with no mask at all.

Statesmen in the distracted countries who have figured in important roles in the past are finding these times perilous. High officials over there always appear to have enemies, and with the restraint off as it now is there is a disposition to snipe. The fate of Count Tizsa illustrates what is meant.

Government is acquiring the habit of doing things by the billion. We all can readily remember the Fourth Liberty loan of six billions, and now it is announced that Uncle Sam has purchased three billion cigarettes for the boys over there.

The utter collapse of the Austrians is in line with their historic lack of valor. In all of Napoleon's encounters with them he employed smaller forces and invariably came off victorious. It was a saying that "Nap." would go out and lick the Austrians before breakfast.

"Vegetable prices starting upwards." Error of statement. They are not starting. They have been long on their way.

The Italians are finding that the section of their country that has been invaded has suffered in a manner similar to Belgium and Northern France. They are now performing in a way that indicates reprisal if peace holds off long enough.

Hundreds of bodies of murdered men and children of other lands have been washed ashore and buried along the coasts of Ireland since the war began. Now the Irish are burying hundreds of their own dead, killed by the German submarine which sank the Leinster. Does this bring the war home to Ireland? Have the Irish people no interest in this war to save the world from such barbarism? Irish babies floating in the sea cry to God for vengeance to be executed by soldiers of their own race.—New York Commercial.

LIENECHT, STORMY PETREL.

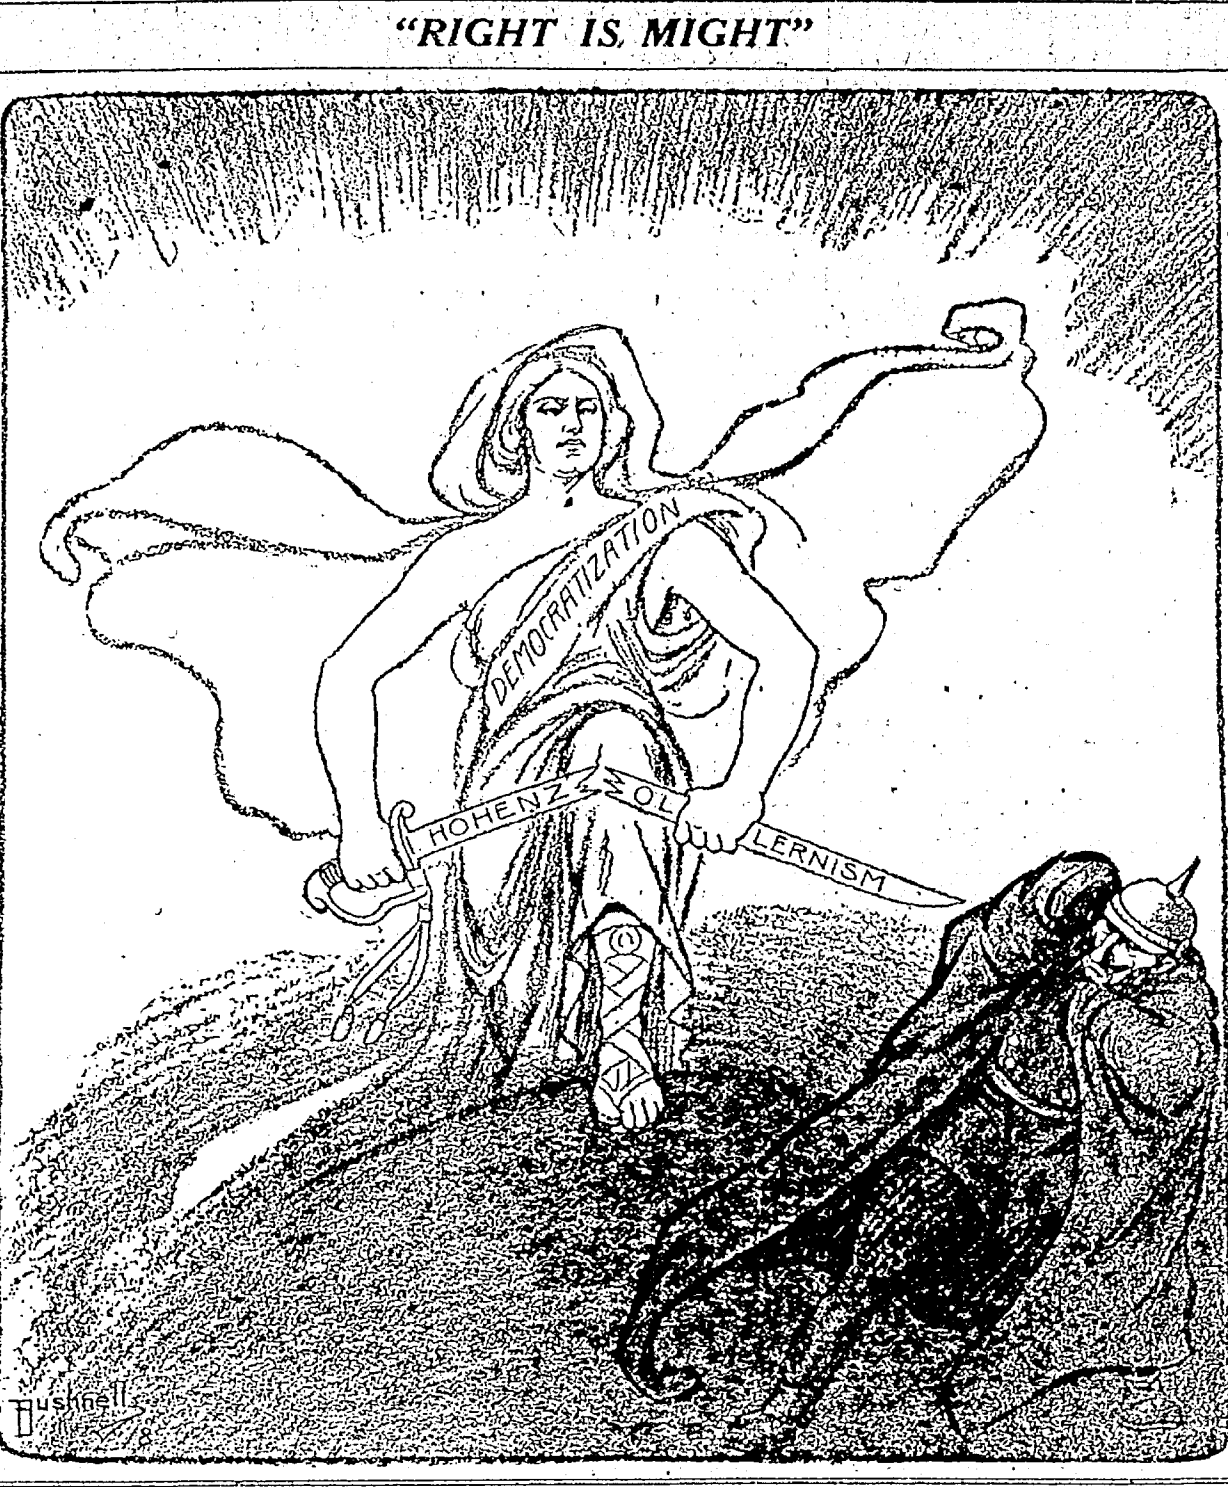

The outbreak of the war found Lienecht out of his his denunciation of the German empire's course. While the Socialists in the Reichstag voted in mugs for the war revenue budget, Lienecht voted against the measure. He incurred not only the renewed hatred of the German autocracy, but the anger of his fellow Social Democrats. They ousted him from the party, because he would not serve their first rule—to abide by the decision of the party caucus.

In March, 1915, Lienecht was ordered to report to the military authorities for army service and warned to make no speeches and to write no articles of a political nature. He was mustered into a Landsturm regiment and assigned to duty in Alsace.

Later he participated in a May Day labor demonstration in Berlin, which resulted in his arrest on a charge of attempted treason. He resisted the policemen, but was knocked down and taken to jail.

Being in the army service he was tried by a court-martial and sentenced to serve thirty months in military prison. He appealed from the verdict and while confined in the fortress at Thorn was rearrested and tried by court-martial on a charge of attempting to incite the garrison to rebellion. For this he was sentenced to four years and one month in prison. He appealed from this new finding, the Reichstag, but it refused to aid him and his reports sustained the court-martial.

His lot otherwise had not been of the rosiest. As he walked along the streets of Berlin in April, 1915, a woman shot at him twice, but missed. In the autumn of 1915, while he was serving with an engineer corps on the Russian front, to which he had been transferred by army orders, he was struck by a falling tree and severely injured. But in prison he was to undergo brutal treatment at the hands of his guards. In August, 1917, it was reported that he was temporarily released, for fear that he would die in his cell. From that time until early in October little or nothing was heard of the "stormy petrel of Germany." A despatch from Amsterdam October 8 said that in accordance with a general decree of amnesty to all political offenders Doctor Lienecht would be pardoned. The despatch telling of his release from prison followed and his first prophecy since is of the dawn of a new era for Germany.—Kansas City Star.

LIBERATING SERBIA

VRANJE, Serbia (by mail to Salonika, thence by cable to the Serbian Press Bureau in Washington).—I have now been at Vranje for forty-eight hours. The scene of the arrival of the troops was a most touching one. There were tears in the eyes of both the liberators and the population they had freed.

Although I arrived in the town twenty-four hours after the advance guard, I had all the trouble in the world to escape being covered with flowers, as our Serbian army and the armies of the allies have been.

After having spent three years in the trenches on the summits of the Moglena mountains, this town of 30,000 seems to me the most beautiful and the largest in the world. But it is Serbia, our beloved Serbia. The white houses in the brilliant sunshine seem wonderfully beautiful to me, in spite of the fact that there are everywhere visible traces of the Bulgarian robbers. The inhabitants, poor and humble though they be, barefoot old men, women, and children, are full of kindness and staid and patience. After having awaited our arrival for three long years, they are full of burning patriotism.

The army, both our own and that of our allies, was received with the most enthusiastic enthusiasm. All, well-to-do or poor, men, women, and children, came out in rags and barefoot to welcome the army, their Serbian army. An old peasant woman, clothed in rags, went up to an old priest who had put on his best robe for the occasion, and called out to him, "Father, long live liberty!"

An old wounded soldier, who had been a prisoner and had been left behind by the Bulgarians, went to the commandant and asked that a rifle be given him to join the army in its advance. A rifle was given him, and he stuffed the cartridges into his pockets and began to march after the troops. But his pockets were full of holes, and the cartridges rolled all over the pavement.

I could cite a score of such incidents, but I must not forget of every soldier. The day the army was welcomed in the town the cressets in front of the holy icons in every house were lighted, and the old men and women knelt around them, praying for the victory of the Serbian army.

They were sure that our army would arrive as soon as it had beaten the Bulgarians and had traversed the Babuna Pass. The German soldiers in Vranje, who had begun to detest the Bulgarians for their cowardice, told the people confidentially that the Serbs would arrive in five days.

"We know the Bulgarians," they said, "and we also know how the Serbs march."

On hearing this the women began in secret to make Serbian flags for the reception of the troops.

I was at Skopje (Uskub) the day an army of Bulgarians traversed the town. All of them were disarmed, but they had been allowed to keep their baggage wagons and riding horses. They were driving herds of goats, pigs and oxen. Such was the "triumphal" passage of the Bulgarians through the town of Skopje, in which they had created a reign of terror during the three years they were masters of it. The inhabitants regarded these cowards with hatred, with which was mingled a feeling of joy that they were once more free. The Bulgarians had the air of bandits and robbers beaten and humiliated by their captives. Not a single one of them had the air of an honest man. All they had with them, except their uniforms of wretched quality, was booty stolen from Serbs.

Near Staro Negoritane the First Serbian army disarmed 20,000 Bulgarians. And this was not a surrender as the result of the signing of the military convention, but, on the contrary, they only gave up their arms when they saw the Serbian soldiers before them ready to open fire upon them. It was then that these "Prussians of the Balkans" threw away their arms and began a wild flight, like frightened sheep, toward the Bulgarian frontier.

The officers commanding the divisions and the regiments begged the Serbian military authorities to leave them a number of rifles so that they could defend themselves against their own soldiers, who, furious with rage, wanted to massacre them. The request was granted, and they were given a certain number of rifles.

Black misery reigns everywhere in Serbia, although, thank God, there are, for the time being at least, no epidemics. In Serbian Macedonia, when the Bulgarians, in the first days of our offensive, were forced to retire in haste, they had not time to carry off with them the depots of provisions. But more to the north, especially to the north of Skopje, as they had two weeks, they were able to carry off nearly the whole of the food. This greater part of the last harvest was requisitioned, and the population left to starve. Our liberators should feel a certain shame that they have not been able to prevent this. Serbia enslaved has received her liberty, but she still awaits bread!

WASHINGTON'S WARNING.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

Much wisdom sleeps with the Revolutionary fathers, which might be made current among the voters of today, with great advantage to the nation. The following passage, from Washington's farewell address, is as apt to our present occasion as though "The First American" had spoken yesterday.

"It is important that the habits of thinking in a free country should inspire caution in those entrusted with its administration, to confine themselves within their respective constitutional spheres; avoiding in the exercise of the powers of one department to encroach upon another. The spirit of encroachment tends to consolidate the powers of all the departments in one, and thus to create, whatever the form of government, a real despotism."

The necessity of reciprocal checks in the exercise of political power, by dividing and distributing it into different depositories, and constituting each the guardian of the public weal against invasions by the others, has been evinced by experiments ancient and modern;

HEALTH and HAPPINESS

How Erysipelas Is Now Treated With Collodion

BY DR. LEONARD K. HIRSBERG (Johns Hopkins University.)

In the days before it was known that bacteria were the infectious virus of many maladies, during our civil war and the Franco-German war, more soldiers and civilians died of wounds with erysipelas as the fatal complications than were killed by shot and shell on the battlefields.

With the discovery and use of antiseptics, asepsis, disinfection, prevention of germs usually present, erysipelas has become about as rare as those other two preventable germ scourges, hydrophobia and smallpox.

Very recently at Camp Cody, New Mexico, further researches by Major R. T. Woodruff and Lieutenant A. A. Avata, upon 124 victims of erysipelas has added more knowledge to the treatment of this ailment.

After high winds and dust storms, particularly, an index of erysipelas patients to the base hospitals was noticeable.

Prevailing methods of treatment are the application of ichthyol, iodine, ammoniated mercury or other mercury applications, and the use of vaccine and anti-streptococcus serum.

In 1888 an American physician, Dr. Charles Stiles, of Baltimore treated erysipelas with collodion, often called "liquid skin."

Lieutenant Avata used this remedy in camp and the happy results he secured are even more to be remarked. Hitherto when erysipelas cases were treated by other methods they showed an average of 8.7 days of fever and 30.4 days in the hospital and the patients were always discharged after redness, swelling and desquamation were gone. Since the treatment with collodion has been initiated the average days of fever are only 3 1/2 days and only 15 days in the hospital. Certainly a 50-per cent reduction in the severity, duration and discomfort of this debilitating and dangerous disease is, to be colloquial, "going some."

The method is to paint liquid collodion with a camel's hair brush an inch in advance of the margin of the erysipelas infection. The border of the affected area is usually visible as a thick, hardened edge. The collodion strip an inch wide is painted over repeatedly until it shrinks and tightens the skin under it as a deeply wrinkled, unbroken furrow. Daily the cracks and breaks are to be repaired by additional applications of collodion.

There is so simple a method of treatment that the absence of 40,000 doctors with our army and navy need not delay the healing and cure of so troublesome and serious a malady as erysipelas.

LANDLORD PROFITEERING.

One of the most flagrant cases of profiteering in the city now bids fair to be made the subject of litigation. For many years a popular restaurant hotel has been run by a woman who recently sold it. She had maintained her organization during the war as best she could and had not raised her prices a penny, notwithstanding that her expenses had increased. The prices were low, for the times, in fact, and all her guests, who were "regulars" and lived in the house for months and years at a time, would have been glad to pay more. The house contained eighty-six guests when the property was turned over, about fifty of whom were war workers, some of them officers of the army and navy, others stenographers and clerks receiving from $1200 to $1500 a year—four were school teachers, whose pay runs $122 a month in a year of ten months. The new proprietor has raised the rent almost 200 per cent right through the building while the table has gone down so badly that many of the guests would have quit the place on account of it had they anywhere else to go. A great many of the guests are old ladies, and they are all ill in bed. The proprietor has no secret of the fact that he is desirous of turning out the present guests that he may let the rooms to congressmen who are able to pay his charges. Counsel are being engaged to fight the proprietor who, by the way, says he has engaged a former member of the District Housing Bureau to defend him.—Boston Transcript.

DISCOVERY OF OIL.

The following extract from a letter published in the recent issue of the Standard Oil Bulletin, the house organ of the Standard Oil Company of California, is an interesting contribution to the literature of petroleum. It gives one version of the first discovery of oil in California.

"Gentlemen: I was very much interested in your article, 'The Birth of an Industry.' It may be of interest to you to know that my wife's father, J. Del Valle, of Camulos ranch, has often told me about the discovery of oil in Pico canyon. The discoverer, Ramon Perea, worked for Mr. Del Valle's father, and instead of taking the oil to Dr. Gelsich, as you say, he brought it to Antonio Pico and Dr. Gelsich, and they formed a company to exploit the property. Perea was given a small interest, but later disposed of it for a small sum. I have often stopped at Perea's house in the San Gabriel canyon before he died. There was a considerable amount taken from the Piaceras canyon and near by.

"I have taken the liberty of writing you thinking that you would be pleased in knowing the name of the discoverer of oil in California. Very truly,
(Signed) "W. B. GANS."

ELECT
EDWARD J. TYRRELL
Justice of the Peace
Oakland Township
He will convene Court promptly.
He will try cases promptly.
He will give every litigant a square deal.
A CHANGE IS NEEDED
VOTE FOR
EDWARD J. TYRRELL

Mr. Edward J. Tyrrell: As a candidate for public office you are basing your appeal for votes on your past record. If you will answer the following questions you can make the record complete and of much more value than the expurgated version which you are now using.

This I feel is due the voters of Berkeley who were and are particularly interested in the class of legislation in which these matters must be placed.

Why did you vote to delay the passage of the anti-race track gambling bill? Was it to enable the book-makers to reap a late harvest?

Why did you vote to contract the University of California dry zone so as to exclude the Claremont Hotel?

Why did you vote in the interests of the saloon against the Rominger bill?

Why did you vote against the bill providing for free text books for public schools? Was there a mixture of church and politics here? Did your church in West Oakland so instruct you?

Isn't it true that your leading woman advocate, acting on instructions from Mike Kelly, through Johnny Mullins, strongly urged the purchase of a hospital site for the county at $25,000 which was condemned and bought for $35,000?

Isn't it true that you are hiding your real record behind a smoke screen thrown out by this woman representative of the Mike Kelly machine in Berkeley?

Sincerely,
(MISS) KATHERINE MAXWELL.

Edward J. Tyrrell

Candidate for Justice of the Peace.

MORE NURSES IS APPEAL OF RED CROSS

With the present favorable conditions maintaining, Chairman Joseph B. Caino of the Red Cross influenza committee, believes that the Municipal Auditorium Hospital will be closed within a fortnight or three weeks. In the meantime the physicians and trained nurses who have worked during the past two weeks to save lives are worn out and they make a pathetic plea to the women of Oakland to volunteer to assist them as aides. The hospital which on Thursday brought to a close two weeks of emergency work has conserved the lives of hundreds of men and women. Twenty mature women who can read a thermometer, and all a chart, having experience in practical nursing in their own families, are desperately needed between the hours of 1 o'clock and 8 o'clock a. m. in the time when the corps of assistants fall off in great numbers.

There are now on duty in the Auditorium Hospital a corps of approximately 300 paid and volunteer workers. The whole plant has been systematized and is running on an efficient business basis. A good night was reported during the past twelve hours, but two deaths occurred.

With the Red Cross Nurses' Bureau having the present situation well in hand, but 47 calls for assistance with influenza patients were sent into the City Hall Headquarters yesterday, the Sunday record being the lowest of any day previous. For the past several days the number has been gradually decreasing. On Saturday, 70 calls were answered, whereas on Friday there had been 83 appeals for nurses, housekeepers, aides, helpers and physicians. In view of the continued efforts of the small force which has been at the command of the bureau, the plea is being made to women who can aid in any way and who have a practical knowledge of the care of the sick to offer their services in this crisis.

One of the department stores which has found clerks in its force with some months' actual hospital training, has recruited them to assist in the fight against the epidemic. The trained nurses at the Auditorium answer the emergency calls which are made at night by accompanying the physicians and lending first aid to stricken men and women. Directors of Oakland Chapter, American Red Cross, yesterday visited San Leandro, where the epidemic has reached an acute stage.

School For Flu Nurses Opened Instruction Is Given to Novices

A training school for the volunteer nurses who are doing such humanitarian work at the influenza hospital in the municipal auditorium has been organized by Dr. S. H. Buteau, physician in charge, for the purpose of more thoroughly grounding them in the practical knowledge in the care of the sick which they are gaining by their present service. It is the doctor's plan to extend the opportunities of the school to those who are desirous of obtaining instruction with a view to immediate service in the influenza hospital. The need for nurses there is in excess of the supply and it is stated that all persons will be welcomed to the school who enter with that object in view.

It is also stated there is at this time no room for others.

Dr. Buteau's lecture hour will be from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. each evening, and will be supplemented by a course in instruction by the superintendent of nurses or one of her chief assistants. Thermometer reading, the proper manner of entering data on a clinical chart, the proper method of administering medicines and the way properly to watch and determine their effects will be explained to the students by the nurses. A lecture room has been set aside for the purpose in the municipal auditorium, and the students will go direct from it to practical work in the hospital wards of the building.

Alien Estate to Go to Government
Money belonging to the estate of Hugo Badlen, known also as Hugo Blies Godlover, and held for heirs in Germany, was today turned over to the alien property custodian by Public Administrator H. B. Mehrmann. Badlen was a highly educated German, who after coming here attended the University of California. During a revival he became converted to religion and applied to the court to have his name changed to Blies Godlover. The estate is worth less than a thousand dollars.

VOTE FOR ALEX FRANDSEN
For Constable of Brooklyn Township

Due to illness, Mr. Frandsen has been unable to conduct a campaign for the office which he seeks. Mr. Frandsen is now well on the road to recovery, although his wife passed away from the same malady on Monday, October 28.

Believing that Mr. Frandsen is the logical man for the office of Constable in this district, a number of his friends have made the publication of this announcement possible.

DECREASE IN "FLU" CASES CONTINUES

"Saturday and Sunday figures for new cases of influenza are very encouraging," said Dr. Daniel Crosby, city health officer, this morning. "I feel that by tomorrow I will be in a position to make a complete statement as to the situation that will give everyone heart, for from all reports, I am certain that we have got a strangle-hold on the malady."

Saturday there were but 104 new cases reported and Sunday but 125. While the death toll reached 32 on Saturday, there was a decided drop for Sunday, the total numbering only 16.

Up to 11:30 today there were 38 cases reported with 16 deaths and a total of 88 releases. The total cases reported to date number 5441 and there are but 2534 cases still on hand. The total deaths to date number 359.

In discussing the situation at length Dr. Crosby made the following statement:

"While everything points to a decrease in the number of cases reported and we have reason to feel optimistic, and nevertheless constrained at this time to ask the general public to not relax one iota in the precautions suggested for the checking of the disease."

RIGID ENFORCEMENT.
"The rigid enforcement of the flu mask ordinance by the police has been a great aid to the health department as many persons who had heretofore refused to wear masks are now religiously doing so. It is too bad that such a course had to be adopted, but the people must realize that in times of stress the good of all must be considered first and individuals who have suffered the humiliation of arrest have only their own carelessness to blame.

"We now have every reason to believe that with the wearing of masks by all good citizens we can each day show a decrease in the number of new cases. This of course, does not mean that the death rate will decrease materially, as we are now at the point where the bulk of the cases are reaching the critical stage. We are, however, hopeful that from now on will be a daily decrease in the death rate as we have perfected our hospital organization and practically all doctors are giving uniform treatment."

Fred F. Morse, commissioner of Public Health and Safety said: "The work of the police department, while drastic, is only what was to be expected. I am certain that 798 persons have been arrested and either fined $10 each or forfeited this amount of bail. This is too bad, but we had to take such steps as the disease was gaining too rapid headway for the safety of the city."

CASES DECREASE.
"I feel that there would decrease in the number of new cases may be attributed to the fact that the great

The Stuck Pig Does the Squealing

Did you ever hear a fifty-thousand-dollar squeal? Well, there is such an animal and it has been turned loose.

When the knife of truth (Publicity) hit the heart of the Dental Trust (the cash drawer) with a mighty squeal it belched forth a shower of gold.

Separating members of the Dental Association from $50,000 was not a painless extraction but it has been accomplished.

The surprising part is, this money has been raised for advertising.

Think of it!—low, vulgar, common advertising, such as is resorted to by tradespeople, but never by "ethical" professional gentlemen.

Something more than pride and "ethics" were threatened before this fine gentry let loose of real money to stoop to such a vulgar pursuit as the purchasing of printers' ink.

The purposes for which the association exists are being attacked: minimum prices and the control of competition.

But why this change of heart regarding their so-called "ethics?"

At a recent meeting of the Dental Association a special dispensation was granted to permit the temporary "besmirching" and "degrading" of the profession by resorting to paid advertising, to avert the threatening storm.

Well, it is more than a young storm. After the people vote tomorrow the Dental Trust will think they have been struck by a cyclone.

Every dental law on our statute books has been framed by the Dental Trust. The people now have their first opportunity to make some dental laws for themselves.

Their vote will be a direct answer to the charge of the Dental Association that the people are not competent to protect their own interests.

Should law-making and price-fixing be done by a combination who have profited by trust methods and placed dentistry beyond the financial reach of those of moderate means?

The people have been duped long enough.

VOTE YES—AMENDMENT 21.

Swat the Loan Shark!

VOTE NO On Proposition "3"

This proposed law permits charges of 72 per cent per year—as there is nothing in the act to prohibit Loan Sharks from making loans for one month, and collecting 1 per cent as interest and 5 per cent as a commission—or a total of 6 per cent per month—equal to 72 per cent per year.

No supervision provided for—no regulation of the methods of business of money lenders, and no license required. On these grounds it is opposed by Arthur H. EXHIBITION BOUTS NOT WANTED IN UNITED WAR WORK CAMPAIGN

California Footballers Show Skill

By HERBERT HAUSER.

THE "big game" is the one topic that is heard in athletic circles around the bay. Stanford and California are to meet again on Thanksgiving Day in the grand old American game, and football fans are ready to give thanks to the men who arranged the game. We have been waiting eight long years for this contest. It is true they played rugby up to four years ago, but then that was not the old game we were brought up on. Rugby is a fine game, there is no denying it, but the good old American intercollegiate football is what the public wants and now unless something unforeseen should crop up we are going to have it.

Down at the Farm there are a bunch of red blooded, red shirted lads out for the eleven, few have played much at the game, but they are all trying. The material is promising and the Cardinal boys are going in to prove that Stanford has not forgotten all about the American game.

Saturday afternoon was a busy one for the University of California squad. Twenty-seven players appeared upon the field. The management has been having great difficulty in arranging games. For Baker was originally scheduled for Saturday and at the last moment phoned that their commanding officer would not allow them to come over on account of the "flu" so that game was off and no other team could be secured, though efforts were made to get the Marines and the Olympic club.

Some five or six hundred spectators watched their way to the oval to watch the men practice. The squad was divided into the Varsity and Goff eleven and a cool stiff practice was indulged in, which gave the yell leaders a chance to train their rosters. The grandstand presented a pretty sight with most of the spectators either in the army or navy uniform, while many co-eds with their gay colors were scattered throughout the crowd.

Next Saturday when California meets St. Mary's the rosters will have their first opportunity of seeing what good support they can give their team.

McDonald Wins the President's Cup at California Club

The president's cup tournament in the California Golf Club was won by J. C. McDonald, who yesterday defeated William H. Kiler 2 up in the final round of 36. Both played capital golf in the morning, having a medal round of 75, and at its finish McDonald was yet hanging on to the allowance of 2 up. In the afternoon play Kiler made a plucky fight and was leading at the thirty-first hole, McDonald closed strong and made the last four holes on par. The morning rain kept many members from being played on the links, but still there is satisfaction to know that the links enjoyed the much needed rain, and the grass will soon be greener than ever.

Willard Must Fight Some Real Contender or Admit He Is Through With Game

By BOB SHAND.

F JIM COFFROTH has finally got Jess Willard in a position where the "champion" will have to either fight or admit he is through with the game he will earn the undying gratitude of thousands of boxing fans who have become disgusted with Willard's actions.

The first move Coffroth made when he reached New York to take charge of the boxing end of the United War Work campaign was to wire Willard and ask him to appear against some suitable opponent in a benefit bout. Willard replied that he would box two exhibitions and that they must be in the State of Texas. Also he said that his business interests would not permit him training and that he was making so much money he could not leave the State. Willard suggested his old sparring partner, Walter Monahan, as a "suitable" opponent.

Coffroth diplomatically thanked Willard for his letter, thereby feeling the fans who do not know the fitness of the California promoter. Many fans expected Coffroth to emit a howl about the exhibition stuff and insist on Willard coming to New York and boxing Jess. Demsey or some other real fighter. But Coffroth said nothing at the time and Willard felt himself secure. Saturday Coffroth made the announcement that every fighter who volunteered his services would be expected to "fight" and not box an exhibition and incidentally any fighter who did not volunteer his services would be blacklisted. Of course the promoter did not mention Willard's name, but the big fellow is included in the general classification.

MUST EITHER FIGHT OR GET SOME BAIT

Now it is up to Willard to fish or cut bait. Every fighter of prominence in the country is ready to step in and take his bit. None of the other champions have said anything about exhibition stuff but Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion; Mike Gibbons, middleweight champion; and Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, have told Coffroth to pick an opponent for them and the tougher the better. These champions are ready to put their titles at stake in order to help the boys in the trenches. Maybe Willard does not own the heavyweight title, personally we think Jack Dempsey can lick him without hat trying, but the situation has been passed squarely up to the big fellow and he will either fight some contender or be eliminated from the game. His "vast of interests" and the fact that he is "making too much money to devote time to training" are lame excuses. If he is making so much money he should be able to donate some of his time to war charity work. Willard has done practically nothing for "the boys." While other champions and near-champions have been traveling from one end of the country to the other donating their time and talent to the Red Cross, tobacco funds and other charities Willard has remained with his "vast of interests."

And the fans have not forgotten that when Jimmie entered the war Willard wired President Wilson to the effect "I am ready whenever called upon." A recruiting agent went on the champion's trail, followed him through four states before catching up with him and then Willard refused enlist. Jess has a whole lot of things to live down and he is being given the opportunity to rehabilitate himself by boxing Jack Dempsey or some other real heavyweight boxer for the benefit of the United War Work fund. It's Willard's move.

Fred Fulton is ready to box at the San Francisco benefit despite the fact that he received when here on a vaude-

The Moore shipyard soccer team of Oakland continued to press the San Francisco Bethlehem's game at Recreation Park in San Francisco yesterday afternoon, while on the Oakland lot the Hanlon Shippard and Alameda Bethlehems braved dark skies and sloppy field, and as a result the Moore nine is just a half game closer to Hanlons for first place. Today Bill Kenworthy, manager of the Hanlon team, wishes that the local groundkeeper had overslept and made it impossible for the game to be played, as his team was nosed out by Alameda, 2 to 1. After the heavy rain of the morning it was expected that few fans would be out to witness a ball game, but it was not the worst crowd of the season that witnessed Speed Martin toss away the game for Hanlons in the very first inning. We have seen times when games in the Coast League were called off with less reason than the shipyard workers had yesterday, and it only goes to show that the players have their hearts in the race and are not thinking of the "game."

LOCAL MEN WILL MEET TONIGHT

Plans for the monster benefit boxing show for the United War Work fund will be outlined this evening at a meeting of local promoters and enthusiasts. The boys talked the matter over informally Saturday night and will get together this evening for organization. Jim Coffroth, national head of the boxing campaign, has asked Tommy Simpson to stage a show here and Simpson wants all the assistance he can get. So for Gordon M. Glendon, president of the shipbuilders' association, and the San Francisco of the Moore yards, George Sawyer and G. M. Todhunter, Simpson's associates in the Emeryville club, have been consulted but a committee comprising business and professional men, representatives from all the shipyards and other industrial plants in addition to the promoters will be appointed.

Charlie Carr of the Hanlon yard and Jim Kieran of the Alameda plant of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation are sure to be on the committee and if Jimmy Rehan does not intend staging another benefit show later in the month his services can be used very nicely in arranging the Emeryville entertainment. Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their country and an occasion when personal rivalry should be forgotten for the common good. One big benefit will be better than two shows and if the rival factions will only get together Oakland's quota will soon be raised.

Fat Larue called on Simpson yesterday but no arrangements were made for his appearance, the promoter desiring to consult the general committee before signing up a card. K. C. Krowitz will probably drop his Tacoma engagement with Frank Farmer if he is given a bout with Larue at the Oakland show. Tonight's meeting will take place at the Hotel Oakland at 8 o'clock. The delegates will meet in the lobby.

Charlie Pruiett Humbles Hanlon Nine and Boosts Moores Nearer Leaders

By EDDIE MURPHY.

LD JUPITER PLUVIUS put the crusher on the Moores and San Francisco Bethlehem's game at Recreation Park in San Francisco yesterday afternoon, while on the Oakland lot the Hanlon Shippard and Alameda Bethlehems braved dark skies and sloppy field, and as a result the Moore nine is just a half game closer to Hanlons for first place. Today Bill Kenworthy, manager of the Hanlon team, wishes that the local groundkeeper had overslept and made it impossible for the game to be played, as his team was nosed out by Alameda, 2 to 1. After the heavy rain of the morning it was expected that few fans would be out to witness a ball game, but it was not the worst crowd of the season that witnessed Speed Martin toss away the game for Hanlons in the very first inning. We have seen times when games in the Coast League were called off with less reason than the shipyard workers had yesterday, and it only goes to show that the players have their hearts in the race and are not thinking of the "game."

Harold Broom Gets a Letter From His Board

Harold Algernon Fitzgibbon Broom, known to every fight fan in the bay cities as the human chatterbox and trainer of Battling Ortega, Frank Barriau and other box-fighting gentlemen, received something in the mail this morning and expects to be sent to Camp Lewis in the near future. Broom's draft board notified him that he was now a regular class A-1 man and that there were none ahead of him. He will take the physical examination this week and if he passes will join his old pal Henry Hickey at American Lake.

President Comiskey of the White Sox has donated one of his ball park to two football games to be played in November by service teams to raise funds for athletic equipment for soldiers at Camp Grant.

Don't Experiment With Catarrh; It Often Leads to Dread Consumption

comes more and more aggravated, and finally reaches down into the lungs, and everyone recognizes the alarming condition that results when the lungs are affected. Catarrh may be the forerunner of all diseases, consumption, tuberculosis, etc. No local treatment affords permanent relief. Experience has taught that S. S. S. is the one remedy which attacks the disease at its source, the blood, and produces satisfactory results in every case. Catarrh sufferers are urged to give S. S. S. a thorough trial. It is sold by all druggists. You are invited to write to the medical department for expert advice as to how to treat your own case. Another Lie By the Gang Politicians

Because he wants to perpetuate himself in his office, the county surveyor, using the city clerk of Berkeley as his tool, denies the existence of the letter of Senator Hiram W. Johnson relative to the faculty plans for the proposed estuary bridge, as prepared by the county surveyor.

This letter of Senator Johnson was published in the papers of September 4, 1918. It appears at the top of page eight of the Oakland Enquirer of September 4, 1918, with the heading of "Wider Estuary Bridge Is Urged—Johnson Says Expert Reports Bascule Structure Should Be Larger." In the letter as on file and as published Senator Johnson says that the government "engineers report that unless new plans are made providing for a roadway at least twenty feet wider, the traffic conditions at that point will not be improved by the construction of the new bridge."

The taxpayers should profit by Oakland's experience in building their auditorium and heed this warning from the government engineers, particularly since $96,048.95 of the bond money voted to build this bridge (County Auditor's records) has already been frittered away for engineering, etc., by the County Surveyor, while the bridge itself has not yet been started.

We have taken up the fight for Mr. Harlan D. Miller because he is still confined to his home with illness after a severe attack of Spanish influenza. We know fully the qualifications of Mr. Miller for the position he seeks and we hope that you voters who have not forgotten the dredger scandal will not be swayed by these false statements made by Mr. Miller's opponent.

JUDGE TURNER For Justice of the Peace, Brooklyn Township

HE HAS MADE A SPLENDID RECORD

We desire to direct your attention to the office of Justice of the Peace of Brooklyn Township, which is to be filled at the coming election. Judge Aaron Turner, who now holds the office and who is a candidate for re-election, has conducted the business of the office in a manner which reflects great credit on the community. He is fearless, fair and just, and this with his training and experience makes his re-election desirable. He has lived among us for many years and has the confidence and respect of the entire community. It is with pleasure, therefore, that we bespeak for him your support on November 5th.

PROTEST ON MACY AWARD IS PREPARED

At an executive session of the Iron Trades Council of San Francisco, held yesterday in the open-air at Emeryville, resolutions protesting the wage terms of the Macy award to Pacific Coast shipyard workers was adopted. The meeting was attended by 200 delegates, representing fifty-six locals in the San Francisco Bay district, and approximately 35,000 workers.

The resolution of protest was presented by a committee of seven that was appointed to pass upon the award by the executive committee of the Trades Council at its meeting in San Francisco Saturday.

The following delegates were appointed to attend the meeting of the Pacific Coast District Metal Trades Council which opened its sessions in Seattle yesterday: R. W. Burton, S. C. Miller and A. G. Atwood. The protest to the Macy award will be presented to the Metal Trades conference by the committee. Representatives of the latter are today conferring with a delegation

IRON TRADES RESOLUTION

Resolutions protesting wage terms of Macy award, adopted by Iron Trades Council follow:

Whereas, With full realization of the fact that our country is at war, and that organized labor has performed its part in fully cooperating with the United States government in industrial production to the end that our country may not be hampered in the successful prosecution of the war; and,

Whereas, The United States Shipbuilding Labor Adjustment Board has again rendered an unsatisfactory decision to the 150,000 workmen engaged in the production of ships on the Pacific coast; therefore, be it

Resolved, That to the end that this spirit of cooperation may be continued without injury to our country, we hereby recommend to the Pacific Coast Metal Trades and Maritime Councils, and all affiliated unions, to protest the decision of the United States Shipbuilding Labor Adjustment Board, and request their international presidents and the executive board of the metal trades department of the American Federation of Labor immediately to take up the subject matter of the unjust award to the end that a satisfactory conclusion may be reached; and be it further

Resolved, That the Pacific Coast Metal Trades District Council be instructed to prepare and find ways and means to present to the Board of Review and Appeals (provided for in the memorandum of December 8, 1917), a statement setting forth the reasons why the award of the Adjustment Board, as announced October 24, 1918, is unsatisfactory; and be it further resolved, That the affiliated councils of the Pacific coast will use every effort to have the united cooperation of each and every affiliated union in persuading their members to remain at work so that industrial production and industrial peace may be assured until every effort has been exhausted by every force of organized labor to secure a satisfactory adjustment.

mend to the Pacific Coast Metal Trades and Maritime Councils, and all affiliated unions, to protest the decision of the United States Shipbuilding Labor Adjustment Board, and request their international presidents and the executive board of the metal trades department of the American Federation of Labor immediately to take up the subject matter of the unjust award to the end that a satisfactory conclusion may be reached; and be it further

NEW CONCRETE SHIPYARDS NEARLY DONE

Construction work at the concrete shipyard on Government Island is approximately 90 per cent complete, and before the close of this month the work of "pouring" the first keel will be under way. Four ways, two on the Oakland and two on the Alameda side of the estuary, are practically completed, as are likewise the various shops and warehouses. All of the trackage has been laid and iron bracing for the same is being "spotted" at the shipways over these spurs.

Almost hidden by a high staging on which several hundred men are at work, the form of the first of the concrete vessels to be built at the yard is rapidly assuming the shape of a ship. The broad flat bottom and mid-section of the 1500-ton cargo carrier called for by the plans has been shaped and is ready for the concrete. Last week a large corps of carpenters was put to work shaping the stern and bow sections. The vessel will be launched early next year.

Within a very short time work will be started on the second concrete ship. The pile driving crew has completed No. 2 ways, and the carpenters have practically finished erecting the towering scaffolding required for the construction of these unique vessels. The material used is fed into the ordinary type of cement mixer, such as is utilized in the construction of the city buildings, and as prepared is automatically emptied into cement carriers. The latter are trammed along the upper tier of scaffolding to the ship form, and poured into it. When the form is filled and the cement has hardened, the ship is done and ready for launching.

The yard force at present consists of 600 men, and is to be added to as work on the vessels progress. This force is exclusive of the pile-driving and grading crews, which number approximately 200 men. It is expected that pile work and grading will be completed in about three weeks.

Work on the soldiers' barracks, where the government guard will be quartered, is about completed, while the cafeteria, one of the largest structures in the yard, will be ready for service no later than November 25. The San Francisco Shipbuilding Company, supervising work on the yard, and ship construction for the Emergency Fleet Corporation, intends to make the cafeteria a model, and will equip it with every convenience essential to the comfort of the workmen.

With a physician and fully equipped emergency hospital at the plant, sickness is combated with a degree of attention which brings satisfactory results. When the epidemic of influenza struck Oakland, the company purchased hundreds of gallons of Dobell's solution and a thousand paper cups. Every morning the workmen were baited at the entrance to the yard with a dose of Dobell's and instructed to gargle.

The result of the precautions taken at the plant is evidenced by the sick report, which shows only six cases of authenticated influenza, and six suspected cases of the malady.

'LEARN TO TALK,' IS PLEA FROM PROFESSOR

BERKELEY, Nov. 4.—Call-formant must learn how to talk. This is the challenge flung by Professor Witter Bynner, recently called to the department of English at the University of California, and well known poet and critic.

One of the few good things lacking in the American people and especially in people of the west is clear enunciation, says the poet-professor, who is teaching students at the university to talk plainly. An example of the kind of speech that an accomplished Professor Bynner declares is shown in the recent Liberty loan campaign. "Speeches and press releases," he declares, "have not only of aesthetic value but a practical worth as well."

$7000 FINES PAID IN FLU MASK CASES

Since noon Friday the Oakland police have arrested 709 citizens for violating the "flu" mask ordinance. Of this number about 650 have appeared in court and paid fines amounting to $7000 while the forfeited fines amount to $590.

The police officers were jammed this morning. Men, women and children were in the crowd. All had the same particular ailment, but these excuses fell on deaf ears. Both judges hold court wearing their masks.

Lemons to Fall in Price Soon, Belief

Lemons, which have commanded unusually high prices for some time, are due for a drop within a few days, according to wholesale commission men. High prices for this fruit have caused much complaint lately, as lemons are being used extensively for influenza patients, on the advice of physicians.

GALE POUNDS SHIPS IN BAY; RAIN GENERAL

Rain, following a heavy wind-storm Sunday morning and a period of lively wind last night, today continued throughout the central portion of the state. The total rainfall in Oakland for the storm, up to this morning, was .73 of an inch.

Yesterday's gale, the first of the season, caught the waterfront off guard, the result being that a number of smaller craft, not strongly moored, were buffeted a bit, considerable damage being done.

Weather predictions are for a clearing up, with fair weather to-night and tomorrow, the storm, according to Forecaster E. H. Wilson, now being on the move toward the Rocky mountain region.

Four ships in the bay were pitched about in a hopeless struggle for more than an hour by the storm, until pulled apart. The barkentine Georgiana dragged her anchor in the heavy wind and bore down on the barkentine, Any Turner, which was crippled by a collision with the steamer Nicolai Friday night. The vessels drifted helplessly for a time. The cont. barge Edward May was picked up by the drifting vessels and the three ran into the Dutch steamer Bawean, operated by the shipping board. The latter's anchors held, however, and assistance was summoned.

Rain was heaviest in the northern part of the state. Sacramento saw a heavy downpour. According to farmers the rain will be generally beneficial to the crops. Physicians are divided in opinion on its effect on the influenza epidemic, some holding that it will clear the air and aid the situation, others fearing that the dampness and resultant colds may mean complications in the situation. The mask order will continue to be strictly enforced.

Youth Arrested on Robbery Charge

Clayton Legg, 17-year-old Portland boy, was arrested by Officers Mulhern and Rossak Saturday night on telegraphic orders from Portland. The boy is charged with having robbed J. H. Brooks of Camas, Washington, of $100 and a registration card.

COLD BROUGHT ON RHEUMATISM

Pain is the symptom of rheumatism that every victim recognizes but the physician appreciates that this blood is a marked characteristic of the disease. Trying to cure rheumatism while the blood remains thin and weak is an almost impossible task because there is nothing to build on.

Mr. Harry L. Seaver of 69 Union street, Lynn, Mass., a carpenter, was subject to rheumatic attacks, and his experience will interest others who suffer in that way. Mr. Seaver says:

"I had rheumatism off and on for twenty years. My work at one time kept me out in all kinds of weather, and dampness and exposure caused my affliction. I had aching pains in the left shoulder and in the right knee. They were so severe at times that they made it impossible for me to rest at night. I suffered with headache, had dizzy spells and was nervous. My stomach was out of order. I learned of a person who had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a treatment for rheumatism, and this decided me to try them. They helped me and relieved me of pain. They have never failed in any case and I have recommended them to many others."

In no disease does the blood show more altering and thinning than in rheumatism. No permanent relief is possible until the blood is restored and the rheumatic poisons are cast out. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at the nearest drug store wherever you may live, or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, upon receipt of price, fifty cents per box, six boxes for two dollars and a half by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Send for the free pamphlet "Building Up the Blood."

War and Medicines

What Many of the Sick and Ailing Are Learning Nowadays.

So many doctors have gone to war, the services of comparatively few are available at home.

Good proprietary medicines are more widely used than ever, and more and more people are finding out how great their merit is.

At this time, when there is greater need of economy than ever before, Hood's Sarsaparilla, a thorough blood purifier; Peptonin, a real pepton-nut-iron tonic, and Hood's Pills, a potent yet mild cathartic, are especially good and liked by all who use them.

These medicines are remarkably efficient, whether taken in conjunction or separately.—Advertisement.

BLISS NATIVE HERB TABLETS

Look in the mirror and note the condition of your skin. Is it spotted, covered with pimples, or sallow? If you desire a fresh, healthy skin, a clear complexion and a bright eye, you must keep your blood in good condition. Take Bliss Native Herb Tablets, and you will experience a general improvement in your health. They remove the cause of pimples, bad breath, heartburn, indigestion and constipation. They act gently but effectively on the liver, kidneys and bowels, cleanse the system, purify the blood and restore healthy, vigorous action. Each box contains 500 tablets, and will last six months. Price $1. Get the genuine, and look for our trade mark and money-back guarantee on every box. Sold by leading druggists and local agents everywhere.

John C. Frohlinger, Primary Election Candidate for Public Administrator, Endorses JOHN A. HILL for the Office. Read What He Says:

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 29, 1918.

To my friends and supporters:

Many of you who so loyally supported me for the office of Public Administrator have already received my personal thanks, and I take this means of expressing my appreciation to all.

A great many, knowing that I have familiarized myself with the situation in the office and with the two opposing candidates, have asked me to indicate my choice. I have no hesitancy in stating that the time is ripe for a change and that I strongly indorse Mr. J. A. Hill for the office.

His opponent has not given and cannot give his personal daily attention to the office, by reason of his professional duties, and those to whom the conduct of the office has been delegated have been so consistently dilatory that I found wide-spread complaint throughout the county, not only on the part of the lawyers but particularly on the part of creditors and heirs interested in the various estates.

The incumbent's sworn report of July 1918 shows 268 unsettled estates. Many of these have been in his hands for from three to eight years, whereas efficient attention should generally close an estate within six to fourteen months. The incumbent's own report constitutes a complete answer to his advertised self-assertion of "100 per cent efficient. Why change?"

It also shows why Mr. Hill came within 185 votes of being elected at the primary and why the combined vote of Mr. Hill and myself was nearly 10,000 in excess of that received by Mr. Hill's opponent.

J. A. Hill is a business man, for years well-known in this community for his faithful and prompt attention to duties, entrusted to him. He promises to be himself personally "on the job" every day and in my judgment should be elected Public Administrator in the interest of good public service.

Sincerely yours

John C. Frohlinger

Friend W. Richardson, State Treasurer.
W. R. Williams, State Superintendent of Banks.
John S. Chambers, State Controller.
Senator Edward J. Tyrrell.
John E. McDougald, Treasurer of the City and County of San Francisco.
Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco.
Civic League of Improvement Clubs of San Francisco.
M. J. Kelly, Treasurer of the County of Alameda.
W. M. Fitzmaurice, Treasurer and Tax Collector of the City of Oakland.
Practically every official handling public money in our State.

In the official arguments to voters published and distributed by the State of California there are printed two arguments in favor of this amendment and no arguments against it.
